PROSPECTUS OF THE EIGHTH VOLUME OF THE NATIONAL ERA. G. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

JOHN G. WHITTIER, CORRESPONDING EDITOR. WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.

In Literature, it sims to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of everyday life. In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man,

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Abselutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Disclaiming all connection with them, it yet sympathizes with those of their adherents who are claiming all connection with them, it yet sym-pathizes with those of their adherents who are honestly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the

It is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Decracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord. The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlight ed Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The only journal at the scat of the Federal Government, representing the Anti-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Scutiment is represented here by four daily papers, nearly all of them being liberally sustained by Governmental patronage, it asks the support of all who believe, in sincerity, that the Union was formed to secure the bles of Liberty, and not to perpetuate the curse or

A beautiful Engraving in each Number. by the approbation of the best jugges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854.

Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate. The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Estimburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought these, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the asgacious Speciator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respect able Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LiTTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 124 cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Living Age, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

A New and Improved Volume. WOODWORTH'S YOUTH'S CABINET enters W upon the Ninth Year of its publication, with the January Number. This Magazine has acquired the name of the "Young People's Favorite." It has become a household word. Its articles comprise an almost endless variety; all, whether grave or humorous, adapted to instruct as well as entertain, and the whole pervaded by an air of pure and healthful morality.

FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH,
Author of "Uncle Frank's Home Stories," "Theodore Thinker's Tales," "Stories about Animals," &c, is still the Editor. The January number contains a choice variety of articles, including some of the best Puzzles ever published. For engravings, we have Portraits of Washington Irving, Daniel Webster on his Farm, and a host of others; among which is our Frontispiece, executed at great expense, in the highest style of the art. The picture is a perfect gem, itself worth the price of the entire volume.

A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS.—The most pure, glossy, and finest, snow white starch, in the world. The cost of this starch is about the same as world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It preserves the clothes, and gives them a glossy and enamelied appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make unre out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been dene. Now, tadies and gentlemen, and on your dines and est this inference. tenen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. PROSPECTOS FOR 1854

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming be fore the public, would return thanks for the generus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern. In the first paper of January next, we design com-sencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for ur columns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS, By EMERSON BENNETT, author of "Viola,"
"Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc.
This Novelet, by the popular author of "Clara
Moreland," we design following by another, called

THE STEP-MOTHER, By Mrs. MARY A. DENISON, author of "Home Pic-tures," "Gertrude Russell." etc. We have also the promise of a number of SKETCHES BY GRACE GREENWOOD, SKETCHES BY GRACE, GREENWOOD, Whose brilliant and versatile pen will be almost exclusively employed upon the Post and her own "Little Pilgrim."

Mrs. Southworth—whose fascinating works are now being rapidly republished in England—also, will maintain her old and pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her gifted pen will be entitled.

Miriam, The Avenger; or, The Fatal Vow By EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, author of "The Curse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Desert-ed Wife," etc. And last—not least—we are authorized to announce

And last—not least—we are authorized to announce a series of articles from one who has rapidly risen very high in popular favor. They will be entitled A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES, By FANNY FERN, author of "Fern Leaves," etc. We expect to be able to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern, as well as the series by Grace Green wood, in the early numbers of the coming year. Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, The News, Congressional Reports, The Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.

[[]] CHEAP POSTAGE.—The postage on the Post, to any part of the United States, when paid quarterly in advance, is only 26 cents a year.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Khetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the careful training of the President.

The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his arduous and noble work.

The Manual Labor Department of the School is under the supervision of Mr. Luther Wellington, a practical farmer, a kind and benevolent man, on a farm of one hondred and fifty seven acres. this work is hardly excelled. Bassan Journal The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fre-sides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair—Darly Box, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamp lighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketabes of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter, teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds.

cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all, and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical native mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inclegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Davily Atlas.
